‘Language plays vital role in human life’

One day conference on National grammar concludes

Aurangabad, Feb 25: The confluence of social sciences and humanity of Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University (Bamu), Dr Sanjay Salunke, said that language is a boon for entire humanity as it plays paramount role in one's life.

He was inaugurating one-day national conference of English, Hindi and Marathi grammar held at Maulana Azad Research Centre in Aurangabad on Monday.

The conference was organised by the Indraraj Arts, Commerce and Science college of the Sillod based Ajanta Education and Military Preparatory Institute.

The inaugural session was chaired by institute head and former MP Uttamsingh Pawar. The BoS chairman and HoD of English in Bamu, Dr Uttam Ambhore, delivered his speech on English grammar, while Dr Madhav Sontakke on Hindi and Dr P Vitthal on Marathi grammar.

At the outset, Dr Pramod Sharma delivered the welcome speech and apprised the audience of the activities of the Indraraj College. Adv J R Devre, vice principal Dr V B Lamb, Dr Pramod Patil and Dr Santosh Chauthaiwale were seated on the dais as the guests of honour during the conference.

Prof Ramesh Mendhe, Prof Dilip Agarwal and others made efforts for the success of the conference.

J R Devre chaired the valedictory function, while RT Deshmukh, Dr Devkarna Madan and principal Dr P G Gour were the guests of honour.

The conference witnessed the participation of 150 researchers across the country.

Dr Manisha Muglikar and Dr Asmita Salve conducted the proceedings while Dr Aniruddha More proposed a vote of thanks.

A special edition of the popular journal 'Research Journey' was released in the national conference on English, Hindi and Marathi grammar held in Aurangabad on Monday. Seen in the photo are Dr P Vitthal, Dr Pramod Sharma, Dr Sanjay Salunke, Uttamsingh Pawar and Dr Uttam Ambhore.
