About Conference

Though Marathwads was the integral part of India. It was not freed along with Hyderabad State till 17th September 1948. It was under the rule of Nizam. Because the contemporary British Government had given them power and right to stay remain their own independent state or to assimilate with the Republic of India. It was adjoined with the Nizam state after the Britisher left India. Hyderabad was the princely state having Hindu majority and Muslim minority. Marathwada region had the great affinity with the ancient glory of India it had the great cultural heritage and line up with the Hinduism, deity and its unique social structure The Nizam forced them to surrender according to his own set rules. He harassed the public laddering heavy taxes. There was anarchy and the women were hurraled and torched by his troops 'Razakars'. The common had no right to appeal against the injustice. Difference was clearly seen between the independent union stats of India the Nizamis princely state of Hyderabad. The common man irritated by the worst situation and began to protest against the 'Razakars'. The great leaders of Marathwada without the language barriers ready to fight against injustice to dis regared the granted state hood of Nizam. The main leaders in the revolt against the Nizam were Swami Ramanand Teerth, Govind Bhai Shroff, Babasaheb Paranjape, Vijayender Kabra, Ramanbhai Parekh, Koratkar, Devising Chouhan and many more.
